

Providence Boat Show / Calendar Listing

February 3-5, 2017: 24th Annual Providence Boat Show Presented by Washington Trust Rhode Island Convention Center (One Sabin Street, Providence, RI)

Explore boating at the 24th Annual Providence Boat Show, a family-friendly happening presented by Washington Trust that features summer in winter. This three-day expo, one of the largest indoor boat shows in New England, will showcase boats for every pocketbook—from a wide range of powerboats to sailing dinghies and paddle-powered watercraft. Included in the price of admission are free seminars with experts to give you the know-how on boat handling, navigation, and equipment. Special attractions and events run throughout the show, including: an indoor pool where all ages can enjoy StandUp Paddleboard demos and remote-control boats; sea-to-table demos where showgoers can sample local seafood and learn how to prepare their catch; and more. From seasoned veterans to those who have never stepped foot on a boat before, all levels of boating enthusiasts will find the inspiration and equipment they need to plan their adventures afloat. The event is owned and managed by the Rhode Island Marine Trades Association.
